10. LEADERSHIP REPORTS:

a. Director of Business Operations:

1) Budget Preparation Update. Mr. Martignetti reported that the Board should have a copy of the proposed budget at their next meeting on March 24. He noted that his department is doing a line by line budget analysis of this year's budget for reductions, that as much as possible of the under spent funds from this year's budget will be applied to next year's, and that an analysis of reserve funds is being completed. Staffing is being reviewed position by position with the idea that any position that is diminished or reduced has minimal impact on programs or students. Our goal is a budget to budget and tax levy increase of zero.

b. Assistant Superintendent for Pupil and Personnel Services:

1) Ms. Riley reviewed Chancellor Bennett's visit to our campus on March 9, 2009. While visiting he met with staff and administration and listened to local issues and concerns. He took a tour of the High School and was very complementary. She noted that it was a great opportunity for Cortland to honor and host his visit, and that Mr. Greg Santoro, Executive Principal, and his team should be commended for their work in facilitating this event.

c. Superintendent:

1) Draft 2009-10 Calendar. Mr. Spring explained that the 2009-10 calendar has been a difficult one to coordinate. Due to the lateness of Labor Day, it was more difficult to come up with 187 work days, and to coordinate with neighboring districts and BOCES. The big difference this year is the 3-day February break. As it is important to our students with significant disabilities, our draft calendar reflects the days that BOCES McEvoy Center will be in session. He asked Board members to contact him with any questions or concerns. The final draft will be brought before the Board for action at their next meeting on March 24, 2009.

11. AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION: There were no requests to address the Board.

12. ADJOURNMENT

As there was no further business to discuss, Ms. Hoeschele asked for a motion to adjourn. Moved by Mr. Young, seconded by Mr. Clark. Vote: Yes – 7, No – 0.
